Read and learn

SHARP Literacy in Milwaukee has partnered with Shorehaven in Oconomowoc in a "Read to Me" intergenerational program, which combines reading and learning in an outside-the-classroom experience for students participating in the SHARP Literacy program. Students from Whittier Elementary School in Waukesha are paired with seniors at Shorehaven, and they participate in community-building projects and one-on-one reading time. At left, a student from Whittier Elementary interacts with Shorehaven resident Maye Zepnick. At right, Barb Tomaszewski and a Whittier Elementary student read together.
